

A man with a goatee and brown hair, wearing a brown fringed leather jacket over a light-colored button-down shirt, is playing a light-colored acoustic guitar and singing into a microphone. He is positioned on the left side of the frame. In the background, there is a brown curtain. To the right of the man, there is a black amplifier with several knobs and a microphone stand. Two other guitars are visible in the background: a Taylor 30th Anniversary guitar and a Fender Telecaster guitar.
